

Churros

1 recipe/unit

Churros are a traditional snack of Spain, and adopted by Mexicans. These are thin or thick knotted or long crispy fried dough which are generally dipped in chocolate and eaten for breakfast, snack or dessert.

Chocolate sauce
80 ml chocolate chips
10-15 ml milk

Churros
250 ml water
50 ml margarine
30 ml sugar
250 ml all-purpose flour
2 ml salt
2 egg

~ 250 ml oil for frying
1 piping bag
1 large star tip

Topping:
30 ml sugar
5 ml cinnamon

CHURROS:

1. Set a large saucepot over medium heat. Add 250 ml of water, the margarine and 15 ml sugar. Once the mixture is just warm, add flour all at once. Stir vigorously with a wooden spoon to incorporate and remove lumps. About 1 minute. Remove from heat and let mixture cool.

2. Once the mixture is not too hot, use a wooden spoon to add egg into the mixture, beating until fully incorporated. This is CHOUX Pastry dough.

3. Preheat oil in a large pot on medium low heat. Use a thermometer to check temperature: 350 -375 Degrees F for deep frying.
4. Spoon the batter into a large pastry bag fitted with a star tip and carefully pipe into the heated oil, forming 6-inch sticks or tear drop shapes onto parchment paper. Cut parchment paper apart, leaving 1 churro on each piece of parchment.

5. Gently lift paper and lower churro dough into hot oil. Do not overcrowd the pot. Deep fry for 3 to 5 minutes, turning once as the underside browns.
6. Remove golden brown churros with a slotted spoon and tongs. Drain on a paper-towel lined sheet pan. Turn heat off oil, it will be strained and stored for reuse or disposed of carefully.
7. Work quickly, combine the sugar and cinnamon in a large mixing bowl. Add the hot churros, tossing to coat.

CHOCOLATE SAUCE:

1. Create a double boiler by using a small medium pot on the bottom, and a heat proof bowl on top. Fill the pot $\frac{1}{4}$ up the side. Bring to a simmer on medium low heat. Do not let water touch the heat-proof bowl.
2. Melt chocolate in the bowl, use a rubber spatula to stir. Remove from heat, stir in milk until sauce is smooth. Set aside until churros are ready to serve.
3. Serve churros with the hot chocolate dipping sauce. Delicioso!
